MORTICIA ADDAMS: I gave up my dreams for the sake of this family. I wanted to travel. I wanted to see Paris... So that's how it ends, huh? Alone and forgotten in a tiny room, living on cat food and broken dreams—what's what happens to mothers. Look at yours. She came for the weekend, the weeks turned into months, its twelve years later and she's still up there: deceived, deluded, smoking in the attic. A grandma. Well, I'm not going to end up like your mother. You lied to me, and I can't live with that.

GOMEZ ADDAMS: Where are we from? Funny you should ask. July 31st , 1715. The Spanish warship, Pico de Gallo, commanded by my great nautical ancestor, Captain General Redondo Ventana Laguna Don Jose Cuervo, leaves Madrid, bound for the new world. Three weeks later, he is still in Madrid, as Madrid is over four hundred miles from the nearest ocean. A stubborn man, he sets sail anyway, only to sink, six months later, off the southern coast of Florida—a hostile land, infested with mosquitoes and rattlesnakes. But enough about us!
